

CASE REPORT GUIDELINES

Please return your case report with this form to Anna@acnr.co.uk. We also request a head-and-shoulder photograph of all authors, and short biographies for each author (30-40 words). Case reports will be reviewed by the editorial team and peer reviewed. The editorial decision is final

TITLE OF CASE

PLEASE ENSURE THAT THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION IS INCLUDED IN YOUR CASE REPORT:

- LEARNING POINTS – 3 to 5 learning points/take home messages as bullet points.
- ABSTRACT - Please provide a short 50-100 word abstract
- PATIENT CONSENT – You must have signed informed consent from patients before submitting a case report to ACNR (please use consent form). Patient's details should be anonymised and non-identifiable.
- MEDICAL WRITING - If a medical writer was involved in any aspect of the report (which is discouraged) we require this person to be named in the acknowledgements section and their funding stated.
- REFERENCES – Up to 10 references allowed.
- TRIALS – If the patient was enrolled in a trial, please provide details.
- FUNDING – Sources of funding used in studies involving your case subject should be disclosed.
- CONFLICTS OF INTEREST – Please provide a full disclosure of potential conflicts of interest or financial interest.

FIGURES/VIDEOS

Please include images as an attachment, NOT embedded into document. Please include captions separately clearly identifying the figures. All images should be CMYK, 300 dpi .jpg or .gif please, no RGB files from the web.
